

Building Safe, Sustainable, and Accessible Buildings For Today and Tomorrow.

Building Officials contribute to making Canada accessible and barrier-free by identifying, removing, and preventing barriers in the built environment.

In the future, buildings will use and generate clean electricity, stay the right temperature, be less drafty, and save Canadians money on their energy bills.

MAY IS BUILDING SAFETY MONTH

Efficient homes and buildings are comfortable, healthy, and more affordable.

Alliance of Canadian Building Officials' Associations